Burial of a Hermit.

Burial of a Hermit.

[Special to The Times-Dispatch.]

SALISBURY, N. C., February 16.—
The remains of Jack Sechler, who on yesterday was found dead in an outbailding at his home in China Grove, Rowan county, were interred at that place to-day. The mystery of his death was never cleared up, and he was buried without a solution of the cause of his demise, which appears to have happened about a week before his body was found. The theory of foul play is discarded by friends of the man, who lived somewhat as a hermit, never having married.

FOR SALE

Two of the Very Best Propositions in Richmond Suburban Real Estate

ever offered, either from the standpoint of the investor or speculator! 1st. 60 acres of rich land in a high state of cultivation, within one-half mile of three street car lines, with handsome 14-roomed residence, large halls, wide perches, surrounded by a splendid lawn, with very handsome shade trees and shrubbery; large barns and outbuildings. Also two very attractive new dwellings of six rooms each.

2d. 15 acres of land, also rich and in a high state of cultivation, four minutes walk of street car line, large 10-roomed dwelling, with halls and porches; another new dwelling, 3 or 4 rooms; large stable, barn and a number of other outbuildings. Also orchard, vineyard, etc.

The rents from these properties will make them a fine investment, especially so when there can be no doubt but this land will steadily increase is value. Then, again, as this land is just beyond the present city limits, it can be subdivided into lots and sold at once, and even at popular prices will yield a handsome profit, as each of these farms can be hought for less than it will take to duplicate the buildings. For further particulars apply to G, 490, This Office.
